Breed Referrals

The breeds listed throughout are provided "as is", without warranty of any kind, expressed or implied. In no event shall Sirius About Dogs, the American Kennel Club, nor any club participating in this event be held liable for any incidental or consequential damages, loss, or any indirect damages.

Breeders sometimes have adult dogs they are willing to place into wonderful homes. The benefit to having an adult is that they are normally housebroken, and do not chew on inappropriate items. They will adapt to a new home, bond with a new owner and will thrive being the center of your attention. Please contact any of the breeders listed below if you are interested in adding a loving companion to your home. Also note that the breeders listed below may not always have dogs (adults or puppies) available.

About National Canine Association Shows

The National Canine Association (NCA) conducts Dog Show Events in a manner that includes the more desirable aspects of the present conformation competition while eliminating most aspects that the majority of owner exhibitors/professional handlers, judges, event-giving clubs and rare breed clubs believe need improving. In addition, the NCA supports the Purebred Rescue

Dog and Mixed Breed Canine Companion participation as part of our approved events.

The NCA is presently incorporated as a "for profit" Chapter S corporation. The goal is that within five (5) years the NCA will go public and be owned by the members and participants within the Sport.

NCA REQUIRES THAT A DOG ATTAIN 100 POINTS TO BE CERTIFIED AS AN NCA CHAMPION. NCA believes that the quality of a dog can be demonstrated, not only by winning within the breed, but also by defeating Best of Breed winners in the Group and Best in Show competition. This should prove beneficial to those quality dogs in breeds in which entries are generally more limited. A maximum of thirty-five (35) points may be awarded at any one show inclusive of Group and Best in Show wins.

NCA CONFORMATION COMPETITION IS DIVIDED INTO TWO (2) TIERS: NON-PROFESSIONAL AND PROFESSIONAL. - The determining factor to distinguish between non-professional and professional is the status of the handler, and NOT the dog, for all classes, Best of Breed, Group and Best in Show. A dog may be exhibited in different tiers (Non-Professional – Professional) at different shows dependent on the status of the handler.

Classes Both Tiers

- a. Puppy Class - For dogs/bitches at least six (6) months to twelve (12) months of age. Two (2) placements.
- b. Bred-By-Exhibitor Class - For dogs/bitches bred by the exhibitor or a member of immediate family. (The immediate family is father, mother, son, daughter, husband, wife, brother, sister.) Dogs must be at least six (6) months of age. Two (2) placements.
- c. Open Class - Open to all dogs/bitches at least six (6) months of age. Two (2) placements.
- d. Winners Class - For the winners of the Puppy, Bred-By-Exhibitor and Open classes. One (1) placement for Winners Dog and Winners Bitch. Winners Dog/Winners Bitch each receive one (1) point for every dog/bitch competing in the classes.
- e. Reserve Winners Class - Selected from the remaining dogs/bitches in the Winners Class and from the second place dog/bitch (if there be one) from the class from which Winners Dog/Bitch was selected. One (1) placement for Reserve Winners Dog and Reserve Winners Bitch. If ten (10) or more dogs compete, Reserve Winners receives five (5) points.

Ultimate Winners Dog/Bitch Classes - Competition between Non-Professional Winners Dog and Professional Winners Dog—AWARD Ultimate Winners Dog. Ultimate Winners Dog receives one (1) point for every dog competing in the Non-Professional and Professional classes. Points are cumulative. Irrespective of winning or losing, both will advance to Best of Breed in their respective tier (Non-Professional or Professional).

Non-Professional Best of Breed Class - (handled by a Non-Professional Professional Best of Breed Class - (handled by a Professional

Open to all non-professional NCA champions (depending upon Tier), Winners Dog and Winners Bitch—AWARD Best of Breed and Best of Winners. A Tier Best of Breed winner receives one (1) point for every dog/ bitch competing in the breed. Best of Winners receives one (1) point for every class dog/ bitch competing in the regular classes.

At the judge's discretion and at the conclusion of Best of Breed for a rare breed, the judge may discuss the breed briefly with the exhibitors.

Awarding of Championship Points - For non NCA champions, points awarded in Breed, Group and Best in Show are cumulative. For any one show, a maximum of thirty-five (35) points may be awarded. Points are awarded for both the Non-Professional and Professional tiers. The ultimate winner of competition between the non-professional and professional is awarded points based on the cumulative number of dogs in competition. For example, a Non-Professional Winners Dog with ten (10) class dogs in competition is awarded ten (10) points. The Professional Winners Dog with five (5) class dogs in competition is awarded five (5) points. The winner between Non-Professional and Professional Winners Dog (Ultimate Winners Dog) has won over a total entry of fifteen (15) dogs in competition and is awarded fifteen (15) points. At any time, the judge may, at his/her discretion, withhold any awards if he/she feels the dogs are not worthy. Points are awarded as follows:

- a. One (1) point is awarded for each dog in competition in the corresponding sex and tier up to a maximum of thirty-five (35) points.
- b. For entries of ten (10) or more in a sex and tier (i.e. bitch, Non-Professional), Reserve Winners will receive five (5) points.
- c. No dog may be awarded more than thirty-five (35) points at any one show including Group and Best in Show wins.
- d. In order for points to be awarded, a dog MUST be registered with the NCA within twenty-one (21) days of the show date.
